Reception

Critical response

Hiren Kotwani from The Times of India gave the film 2.5 stars out of 5 and summed up saying, "The first half seems to be taking the film's title too seriously and is a little too 'chilled out' and meandering. It's only at the interval point when more things happen, and the movie moves into higher gear. And the second half more than makes up for the 'vellapanti'-filled first and also keeps you glued to the screen proceedings even though you half-anticipate them."<sup>[7]</sup>
