Early life

Druid made his acting debut with the release of the documentary Trading Ages on February 17, 2012.

Career

Druid developed a love for performing after receiving a standing ovation at his school talent show, which brought him the opportunity to serve as the frontman for a rock band.^[3]

He was further influenced by his younger brother, Aidan Fiske, who was already performing. However, his final decision to enter the acting business came as he was watching a movie at the Byrd Theatre where he concluded that he loved everything about the industry^[4] and wanted to be a part of it.
