Reception

Abhishek Srivastava of The Times of India rated this film 3 stars out of 5 stars and noted "This school drama possesses all the necessary elements for a great film, yet instead of delivering a delicious experience akin to a biryani, it serves viewers a simpler fare of plain chawal and dal."<sup>[4]</sup>

Sonal Pandya of Times Now rated this film 2.5 stars out of 5 stars and noted "The film feels at times like a time capsule. A few of its storylines of small-town thinking have become a little dated now, especially in regard to teenage relationships."<sup>[5]</sup>
